Ok, so to answer the questions as best as I can...

- 1). You should be ready to go at 11:00 am Central time on this Sunday in Nashville. I will know more about where we are having lunch once I call some of my contacts in Nashville & understand more about the special planned festivities downtown on that day.
  - 2). We fly into Signature FBO at Nashville International Airport & into Signature FBO at Dulles.
  - 3). You should be ready to go on Tuesday, February 2nd at 8:15 am eastern time from the Old Custom House (our offices) in Bristol, TN. to arrive at Dulles Signature FBO before 10:00 am eastern time. We will handle your bags & take you to our hanger in our private limo. Please let Tim Burchfield know if you and/or Torshin will want to go on the U.S.Capitol tour scheduled for Tuesday evening. I can tell you I have been on the tour numerous times & Representative Wamp does an excellent job & it is worth the effort. But they will need you to confirm. You should have a good time at & during the National Prayer Breakfast. If you can, please take Mr. Bob Woody up on his invitation to join him for coffee after the breakfast Thursday morning. Bob is an exceptional businessman & entrepreneur. He is my business partner in an oil & gas business we own. But his greatest asset is that he is an exceptional person who is kind hearted and generous & knows a lot of people in Washington who are connected with the prayer breakfast. His offices are with Mr. Steve Case of AOL fame. The same is true about Mr. Tim Burchfield & I am lucky enough to claim all of them as good friends!
  - 4). On Friday, February 5th, you & Alexander should be at Dulles Airport Signature Aviation FBO at 10:00 am eastern time. We will have a great time & meet many NRA friends at Safari Club International. I am glad my good friend Alexander Torshin has agreed to join us & I will make sure David Keene knows this, as well. We will hammer out our Kamchatka plans then.
  - 5). Lastly, I have a business Executive friend (Mr. Aaron Tabor) & his team who will be traveling to Moscow in one week and was hoping I could ask if Anna or Tatiana could help them with translation services or directions while they are there for the week. Please let me know if this is possible. I know he (and I) would greatly appreciate any help you could offer them as they seek to explore opening up a cosmetic business in Russia & employ Russian chemists.
- That's all I know for now.

Dear Joe,

As I prepare to depart for a week of fabulous connection with you, some last minute questions in order to finalize my schedule:

1. I'm staying at the Marriott Springhill Suites at 1100 Airport Center Drive in Nashville. What time should I be ready for the "Gregory men" to pick me up on Sunday morning for lunch / hockey??
2. When your private jet lands at Washington-Dulles Airport, do you use Landmark or Signature as your FBO?
3. I'd like to arrive at Washington-Dulles Airport on Tuesday morning, February 2 at 10:00 AM EST. What time should I depart your home town airport in order to make this happen?
4. What time should Alexander Torshin and I be ready and waiting at the Washington-Dulles FBO on Friday morning, February 5 for the flight to Las Vegas? (I'll be wearing my "lucky" shoes!)

Thanks in advance for a fabulous week!

Sincerely,
Maria
